

Declinul și valoarea ideii de progres

The Falling-off and the Value of the Idea of Progress

Florian Filip

Abstract:

The paper has as basic idea the fact that the mankind has - more than never - to face a new dilemma which implies serious reflections on the techno-science and other value.”. The vision of the history as progress is specific to the Western world hut it has its roots in the Judaic-Christian tradition. The corollary of these idea is: the optimism and the pessimism are alike in promoting their proper ideas. Beyond hope - that has no more a solid basis - it remains nothing...
