Evoluția sistemului instituțional de protecție a drepturilor copilului în România în intervalul 2000-2005 / The Evolution Of The Institutional System Of Children's Rights Protection in Romania between 2000 and 2005

Abstract:

This paper presents the institutional system of child's rights protection in 2000-2005 period, at the national level. Related to the legally system of child's rights protection, the institutional system evolved and developed a National Authority for Child Protection. The objective of this authority is to ensure the right mobility of the resources, to identify the relevant factors and establish an efficient partnership in order to protect the child's rights, and also to improve the child's condition and his value in the Romanian society.
